PARRILLI, Luigi, Baron

C D letter
11 July 1949

RESIDENCE: Intra/Verb., Villa Poss, or Genoa-Pegli, Villa Chiesa, Italy.

Subject appointed unofficial representative of the Order of Malta in Germany with EUCCOM. Chosen because EUCCOM insisted that a non-German national fill the post. Came for the first time to Munich in the fall of 1948. Was in Germany together with a German national, Guido J. Zimmer, (Erlangen, Bavaria, Mozartstrasse 26) whom he knew before. Had intended to make this man his personal secretary in Germany. According to a letter of Thun und Hohenstein of the beginning of May 1949, addressed to Woldmann, Baron Parrilli either resigned or was made to resign from his position, allegedly for health reasons. Subject knows about operation in general; not aware of details.

PARRILLI was used as intermediary for Armistice negotiations with Dallas JEX-1000
6/8/45
He had been one of the prominent double agents of Abteilung VI JEX-3748
